

FACT:

The GED® test offers the potential to earn up to 10 semester hours of American Council on Education recommended college credit.

HIGH SCHOOL EQUIVALENCY

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

The Department of Defense (DoD) Voluntary Education (VoEd) Program, through the Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support (DANTES), offers access to the GED® test, the only nationally recognized opportunity to earn a high school-equivalency credential. This test gives service members without a high school diploma the opportunity to meet educational goals and further succeed in their careers. The computer-based GED® test is offered at authorized Pearson VUE Test Centers in participating jurisdictions worldwide.

STUDENT BENEFITS:

- ⌋ Self-paced program allows members to earn a diploma in less than three months
- ⌋ DANTES reimburses the test fee for eligible military personnel, at least once per lifetime of service
- ⌋ 24/7 access to study guides and support material from computers and mobile devices
- ⌋ Helps prepare for college enrollment
- ⌋ Increases earning potential when seeking employment

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY:

All active duty, National Guard and Reserve component service members, in all military services, including the U.S. Coast Guard are eligible to use the program.
