VOLUNTARY EDUCATION COMMUNITY SUPPORT

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

The Department of Defense (DoD) Voluntary Education (VoEd) Program, through the Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support (DANTES), manages a portfolio of education programs that help military members achieve their education and career goals. The VoEd Community Support program helps education counselors and military members become familiar with DoD's no-cost military education benefits and tools.

VOLED COMMUNITY SUPPORT:

- ✓ Reference Publications – printed/published resources available to military education and family service centers providing educational counseling
- ✓ DANTES Digital Network – provides the VoEd community access to the latest monthly education newsletters, blogs, social media updates, videos, podcasts, and mobile apps
- ✓ VoEd Community Training – offers face-to-face and online training for VoEd professionals and service members

VOLED COMMUNITY BENEFITS:

- 📖 Targeted messaging for military audience
- 📖 Up-to-date, current information
- 📖 Money saved with no-cost resources
- 📖 Easily accessible digital education tools
- 📖 Resources offered in various formats
- 📖 Professional development opportunities for VoEd personnel

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY:

Active duty, enlisted, officer and warrant officers, National Guard and Reserve components, veterans and family members in all military services, including the U.S. Coast Guard, and VoEd Professionals are the targeted audiences for all VoEd Community Support communications.
